THE CLASS OF 1958 is unique in that it is the first to complete five years of learning at H.C.H.S. During this time it has reached fulfillment in a harvest of work and play and participation. This harvest represents the conclusion of the cycle begun in 1953.

But the H.C.H.S. cycle does not end here. It continues with each class, reaching a new harvest every graduation.

*Within these pages the five present classes are symbolic of the H.C.H.S. cycle of learning. They are the present manifestation of experiences that have served to bring about the first GOLDEN HARVEST

Foreword

Eighth Graders Peter Sizemore, Catherine DeJarnette, and Charles Payne take their first step in the H.C.H.S. cycle.

Students begin academic work early at H.C.H.S. Nat Wooding, Joyce Worsham, and Judy Dunkley solve scientific problems in an eighth grade class.

this our Golden Harvest

MR. W. CARL CREWS

Dedication . . .

In a time when teachers are paid more out of the satisfaction of a job well done than in material reimbursement, it is gratifying to have been associated with as dedicated an individual as Mr. Carl Crews.

In class he taught us with a thoroughness that is the mark of a brilliant and born teacher. His analytical mind always probed us and drove us to the search for knowledge. We were ever mindful in his presence of the value of truth for its own sake.

As if teaching government and history were not enough, he has sponsored the senior debate team for three years and the junior team for four. During our third year at Halifax County High School, he was advisor for the Student Co-operative Association.

Mr. Crews is an impressive, gentle man, who, as a sponsor of the Class of 1958 since its entrance into the school, has always been willing to help and advise whenever called upon.

He will always remain for us a living symbol of the virtues of the teaching profession.

For these reasons, then, it is with real gratitude and affection that we dedicate the 1958 HALISCOPE to Mr. W. Carl Crews.

Administration

The faculty and administration feel a real obligation in the guidance of students toward maturity. The comparatively small personnel at Halifax County High is called on to share a large amount of responsibility in serving the students. In the various fields of extra-curricular work, members of the faculty serve as advisors to the student clubs and organizations. Faculty members serve in clinic work, guidance, publications, plays, during interscholastic contests, school trips, and school sponsored social occasions.

In addition to these obligations, members of the faculty are ever willing to assist students in problems of both a curricular and extra-curricular nature. Faculty members have truly executed an influential hand in the educational harvest that has been ours.

Classes

Classes offer an opportunity for co-operation among students. Class members work as a unit during the five-year cycle at Halifax County High School to make and spend wisely the funds necessary for the different class activities.

During the first six-weeks each year, students elect their class officers after a week-long campaign. To these officers is delegated the authority to execute class promotions. Generally, the lower grades accumulate funds in increasing amounts each year as a backdrop for expenses the last two years.

Class promotions during the five-year education period at Halifax County High School, along with association in schoolwork, serve to give students a unity that will benefit them in later life.

Inspiring companionship and unified school spirit.

Eighth grade officers are (seated) Crawford Peace, president; Beth Ramey, secretary; Leroy Hall, vice-president. (Standing) Mr. Roy Blanks, class sponsor; Jimmy Hall, sergeant-at-arms; Charles Payne, treasurer; and Arthur Apple, reporter.

Eighth Grade

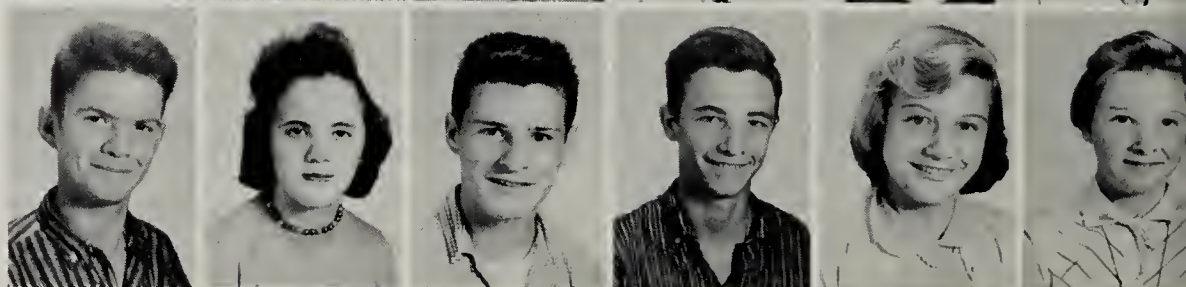

The first grade at Halifax County High School combines graduates from the nine elementary schools in Halifax County. First year students are introduced to exploratory courses which help them decide on their course of study here.

These students enter the first phase of Halifax County's educational harvest. They are taking the first step in the five year cycle of learning. They are, for the first time, introduced to the size and complexity of high school life. Eighth graders represent in the words of Principal J. Marshall Swanson, "the backbone of the school."

Freshman

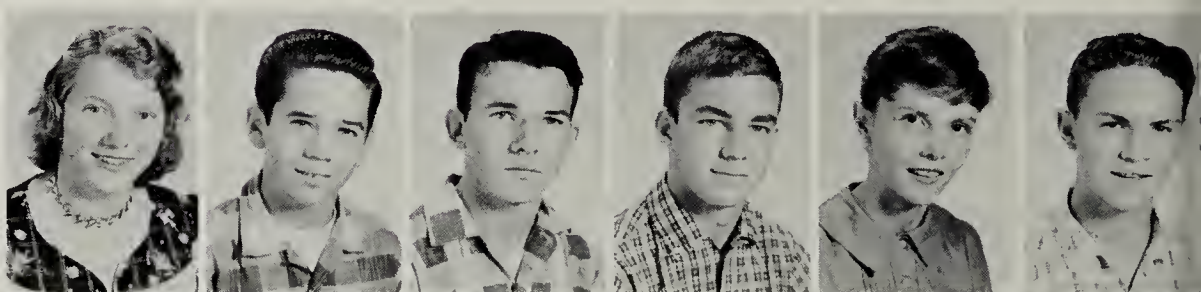

Scholastic credits for graduation and college entrance are earned first in the Freshman Class. In this second year of the Halifax County High School cycle, students become eligible for interscholastic competition in athletics, clubs, music, and forensics. They are also eligible for the many intra-school activities, some of which are denied eighth graders.

Freshman students for the first time have some personal choice in the selection of subjects.

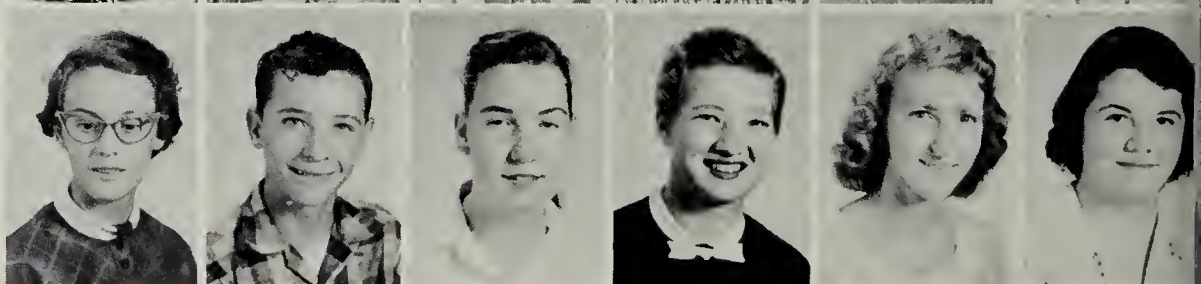

In actuality during the ninth grade, freshmen begin the first official functions of high-school students.

In the Sophomore Class, students reach the halfway mark in the Halifax County High School cycle of education. This is a period of transition, a period in which students fall somewhere between the category of the fresh eighth grader and the veteran senior.

Tenth grade students often exhibit a sense of optimism. They represent at the same time accomplishments finished and hopes of future success.

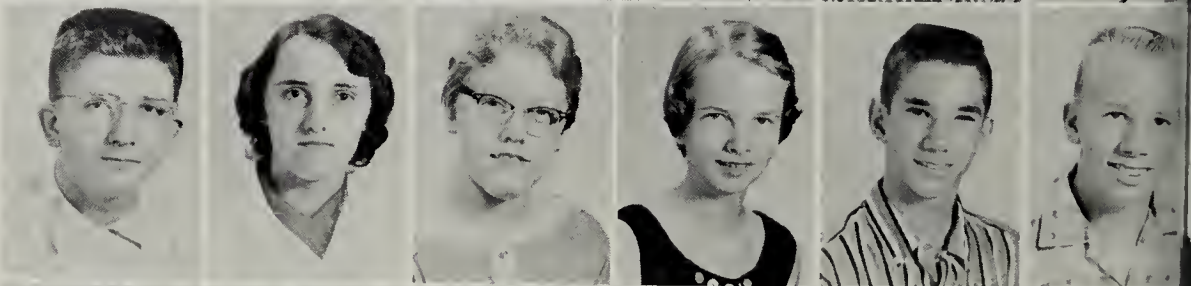

It is generally in the Sophomore Class that students start to feel a definite class identification. They begin to sense a unity among themselves that carries on into the Junior and Senior Classes.

After the speech-making, students return to homerooms to cast their ballots. Isabel Fourqurean, representative from Mrs. Harding's homeroom, receives the votes of Gladys Fallen and Kenneth Good.

Junior

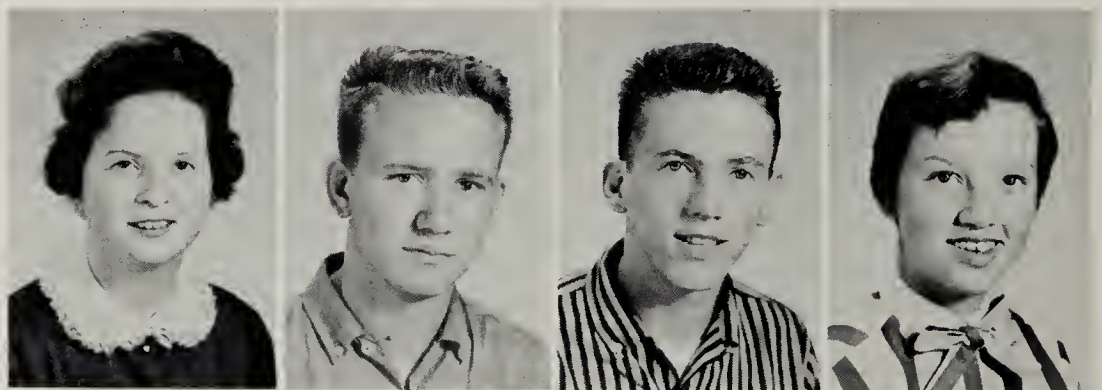

The eleventh grade as the first "upper class" brings many new responsibilities to Halifax County High School students. It is here that students begin to dominate school organizations and activities. They have the responsibility for the most important dance during the school year as well as the junior play. Juniors, being only one year away from graduation, begin to look forward to the years after school.

They become eligible for "upper class" honors such as the National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll. In the Junior Class, students near the final stages of the school's educational harvest.

Senior Class

The senior year at Halifax County High School is a year of responsibility and privilege.

Seniors naturally carry the brunt of student leadership. They fill the top posts in such fields as athletics, student government, agriculture, music, home economics, and dramatics.

The tendency at Halifax County High School is to stress senior leadership responsibility rather than senior privileges. However, senior privileges do exist. Seniors have preference in choice of classes as well as seating priority at assemblies. In addition to this the east booths in the cafeteria are reserved for twelfth graders.

These responsibilities and privileges are identified with the final stages of the high school cycle. They are characteristic of the days just before the educational harvest.

Members

Selected by both her classmates and the faculty, Betty Lou Anderson won the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award.

Larry Harmon was the school and district winner in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. He placed second in the zone.

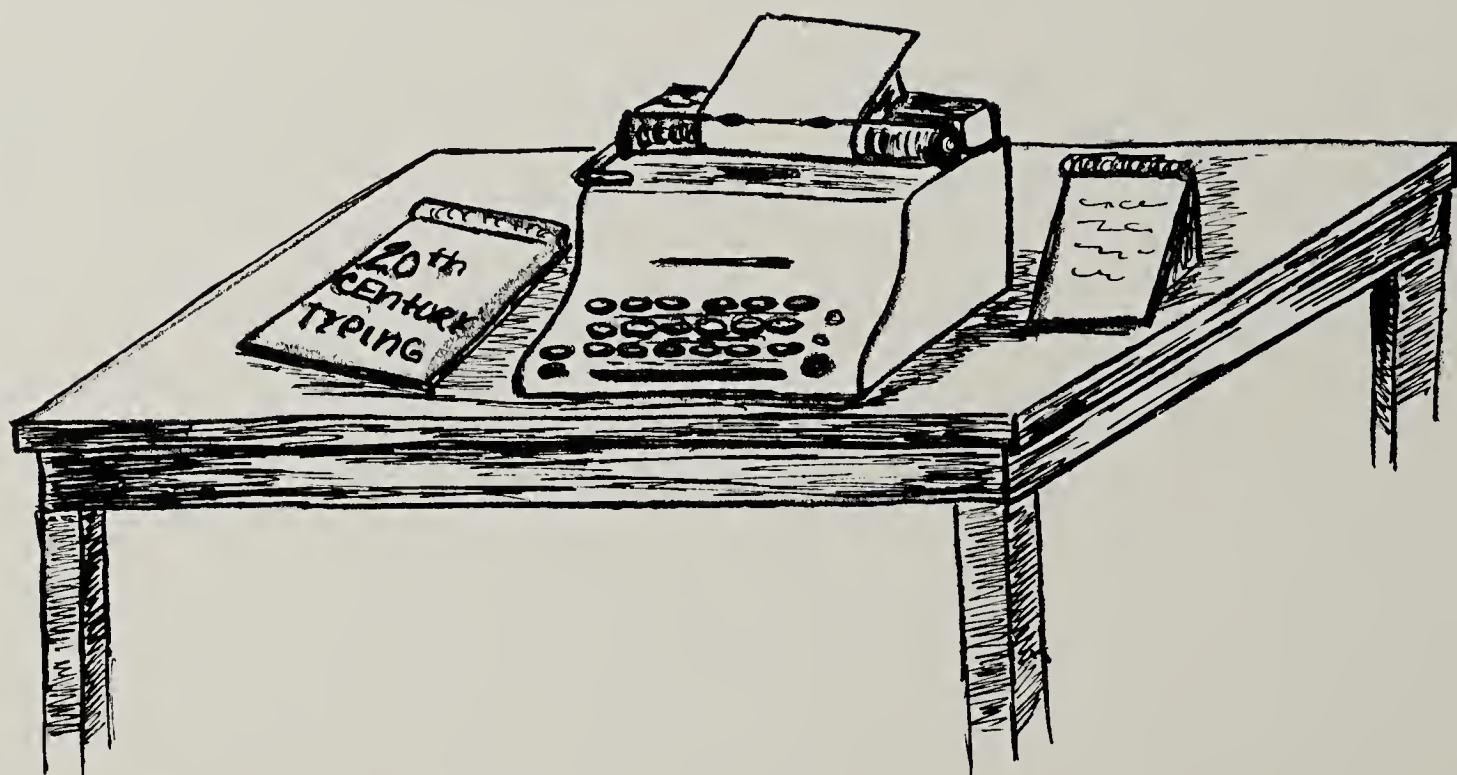

Winning over approximately twenty-five other speakers, Natalie Terry was declared the local winner in the Voice of Democracy Contest.

Curricular

The courses offered at Halifax County High School are many and varied. Different programs of curricular are followed by students according to their individual needs. For instance, students preparing for college are offered four years of high school mathematics, four years of science, four years of social studies, and three two-year foreign language courses.

Students interested in agriculture can take four years of the two-hour course as well as two years of industrial arts. Special courses in Distributive Education and Diversified Occupations are open to students wishing to work part-time while receiving their education.

Business aspirants may pursue business courses such as typing, shorthand, and business arithmetic. Other courses offered students are band, journalism, speech arts, home economics, and art.

The classes mentioned above are taken in addition to the four years of required English. Other requirements for graduation are one year of mathematics, one year of science, two years of social studies, and four years of physical education, unless excused on a guidance basis. Eighth graders have six classes with no electives, excluding band which is, in some cases, substituted for another course.

and stimulation for understanding.

Our opportunity to reap...

Three foreign languages are taught at H. C. H. S.: French, Spanish, and Latin. In these classes students learn not only the basic facts of the language, but an appreciation and understanding of the people who speak them. In the photo above, French students, Tommy Gold and Charlotte Puryear, prepare to listen to French pronunciation records while Brown Carpenter works on a poster, written in French, depicting various activities of a Frenchman's day.

Judy Hunt and Carrington Powell set up equipment for a research problem in the chemistry laboratory. In addition to chemistry, H. C. H. S. students who plan to attend college often take physics.

the harvest of knowledge

Senior home economics students are taught, among other things, to make their own clothes. They also make costumes for school dramatic productions. Betty Forlines, Faye Crews, Barbara Newby (standing) and Frances Henderson work on seventeenth century costumes for the junior play, "The Imaginary Invalid."

One of the features of English 12 at H. C. H. S. is the study of "Macbeth." Gene Clay and Doris Overby prepare to play records for the class. Seniors also review grammar, write themes and term papers, and read the best of English literature.

The study of grammar is a very important part of all H. C. H. S. English classes, from grades eight through twelve. Freshman Billy Anderson shows Kay Dixon the proper way to diagram a sentence.

American history students, H. Mason Sizemore, Mary Lee Yates, and Carolyn Woosley, prepare a display of maps for the class. United States history is a required course for juniors.

In ninth grade science, students study the development of mankind from the cave man days to the modern times of the rocket. Sandi Fralin (left) shows Mrs. Vernie Bohannon and Pete Bradley a chalk drawing that she did of a rocket.

D. B. Patterson puts the finishing touches on an arm sling he fixed for Billy Franklin. First aid is taught to all students in physical education classes. Good health practices also make up a part of the physical education course of study.

Nancy Lee Holt, Frances Wynne, and Marie McKinney do a tumbling exercise in girls' physical education. Both team and individual sports and games are stressed in the gym classes.

Extra-curricular

There is more to school than classes and there is more to be learned than that which is found in the textbooks. It is in extra-curricular activities that classroom knowledge is applied and expanded.

The S. C. A. gives elected representatives the opportunity to practice student government; F. F. A. helps boys apply classroom agriculture to actual farming; D. E. and D. O. provide first hand working experience; and the STAR and the HALISCOPE give journalism students the opportunity to exercise their knowledge. Each of the eighteen clubs and organizations has its particular purpose to promote individual fields of student interest. Two of the honor groups give credit to outstanding participants in journalism and dramatics; while two others honor students of all-round high caliber.

In addition to increasing interest in a given field, clubs provide a chance for co-operation among students.

Encouraging service

Every other Monday journalism students sell copies of the STAR to HCHS students in the lobby at lunchtime. Phyllis Conner and Norma Epps look over a copy of the prize winning newspaper while Leonard Riddle tries to interest passers-by. Kenneth Mauck sells a paper to Barbara Day.

Student Co-operative Association

Through many varied activities, the Student Co-operative Association realizes its objective of "promoting the welfare of the school through co-operation with the students, faculty, and administration, and acting as the central organization for student discussion and action on school problems, ideas, or activities."

The Homecoming and Topsy Turvy Dances are highlights of the Student Council's social phase. The annual Christmas drive for food and clothing to be distributed by the County Welfare Department, and the Safety Committee's program are examples of the Student Council's civic responsibility. By operating the concessions at the ball games during the school year and by sponsoring a lost and found department, the Student Council fulfills its responsibility of service to the school.

One of the highlights of the activities of the Student Council this year was the sponsoring of the S.C.A. Fair in which each club at H.C.H.S. co-operated.

S. C. A. Committees

Much of the work of the Student Council is done by committees.

Concerned with the purpose of initiating and promoting safety at HCHS and in Halifax County, the Safety Committee sponsored an all-day safety program and a five-day safety emphasis week.

In the weekly devotions sponsored by the Student Council, the students and faculty received inspirational messages. The devotions were presented each Thursday morning by students of HCHS. At many of the assemblies and meetings at HCHS, the Devotions Committee was responsible for the devotions.

Announcing SCA activities and keeping the student body informed was the job of the Student Council's publicity committee. This committee was responsible for maintaining the council's bulletin board in the lobby and publicizing the SCA events of the school year.

A "first" in HCHS's history was the idea of the foreign exchange student. Through the co-operation of the student body and the county civic organizations, the FES Committee was enabled to obtain the necessary funds to finance such a student. As the HALISCOPE went to press, plans had been completed, pending approval of HCHS by the American Field Service.

Another first in the history of HCHS was the materialization of a handbook for the school. To be published in September, the handbook will include all information pertinent to newcomers at HCHS.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society recognizes members of the Junior and Senior Class who are outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. New members were tapped by old members in a beautifully impressive ceremony in the gymnasium in March.

The sale of stationery was used by the N.H.S. this year to earn money for buying vestments to be used in induction ceremonies.

Members of the society who are in the Junior Class usher or act as marshals at all graduation activities. A social highlight of the year is the annual picnic.

Junior Honor Society

To create an enthusiasm for superior scholarship, to stimulate desire to render service to one's school and country, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils of H.C.H.S., are the main objectives of the Junior National Honor Society.

For membership in the organization, students must excel in service, leadership, character, and scholarship. To maintain membership, students must have an average of 91. Only eighth graders, freshmen, and sophomores are in this society.

During the year, the group sponsored the seventh grade orientation, assisted with the College Day program, sold programs at all home football games, and sponsored a Valentine Dance.

Mrs. Lorraine Myers is sponsor of the group.

Quill and Scroll

Journalists who have done outstanding work in school publications at Halifax County High School are members of the Douglas Southall Freeman Chapter of Quill and Scroll. These students are principally members of the yearbook staff and the staff of the school paper. They are chosen on the basis of achievement, ability, and scholarship. The students must be in the top one-third of their class in order to be considered. They must have done superior work in some phase of creative endeavor and must be recommended by the advisor of school publications, Mr. Richard J. Fitz, Jr.

Chambers Hodnett, Jimmy Barker, Kenneth Mauck, Joyce Wilborn, Doug Wilburn, Bob Terry, Glenda Newby, Larry Harmon, Lois Benoit, Leonard Riddle, and Barbara Day.

Thespian Troupe 1418

Thespian Troupe members render their services and skill to the class productions presented at the school. The purpose of the Troupe is to advance the standards of excellence in dramatic arts at Halifax County High School. More specifically, the Troupe encourages students to attain a better mastery of language, to develop poise and self-control, and to appreciate dramatic literature and its techniques. To be eligible for membership, one must be in two productions and acquire a minimum of ten Thespian points. These points are awarded on the basis of the size part performed and the merit of the performance.

Thespian Troupe members Bob Terry, Tony Michaels, Mildred Murray, and Larry Harmon look over a list of candidates for membership in the dramatics group.

The

Just as the class of 1958 marked the completion of the H. C. H. S. educational cycle, so did the 1958 HALISCOPE herald a number of firsts in school publications. The initial sixteen pages of color, the curricular section, and the use of assistant editors for each section of the book are new for an H. C. H. S. yearbook. Furthermore this was the first year that the cover was not printed in the traditional blue and white. The gold and maroon was used to heighten the effect of the "Golden Harvest" theme.

Bettie Woltz (seated on arm) is layout editor of the HALISCOPE and Martha Anne King is assistant editor.

Haliscope

This theme coincided with the fact that the seniors are the first to have completed all five classes at H. C. H. S.

The "Golden Harvest," picked for its uniqueness of timing, could not be used in the same manner by any other class.

It should be mentioned that the editors of each section, as well as their assistants, did a remarkable job guided by the advisor, Mr. Richard Fitz.

Editor-in-chief Henry McLaughlin

Joyce Wilborn (seated on arm) is copy editor of the HALI-SCOPE and Frances Tune is business manager.

Feature editor is Glenda Newby and Kenneth Mauck is sports editor.

The Star

"This newspaper fairly exudes quality. It is a tribute to its staff and advisor as well as to the school it must proudly represent," was the praise afforded the STAR by the judge at the 1958 Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in New York.

All this was brought about by the intense efforts of the STAR staff, who worked constantly to further the record established by last year's staff. New layouts and methods were employed in order to improve the looks and usefulness of the newspaper.

These methods were obviously successful, as the STAR captured another Medalist Rating, the second in two years. A new record was also established when the judges awarded the paper a total of 964 points out of a possible 1000, a new H. C. H. S. high.

STAR Editor-in-chief Larry Harmon

Several minor changes took place in the STAR this year. The editorial page sported a new look through several issues, as the staff searched for just the right combination between columns and editorials. The front page also underwent a few changes, as new and unusual layout forms were employed more than ever before.

Staff

Since its organization five years ago, the Halifax County Marching Band has become a major feature of the school. The accomplishments of the Comet Band are long and varied.

The band received this year a superior rating at the District Festival in Roanoke. Aside from participating in the half-time activities at football games, the band journeyed to Hampton-Sydney and added color and splendor to their Homecoming festivities. During the Christmas holidays the band went to Oxford, North Carolina, to lead their Christmas parade. The annual Spring Concert of the band was a splendid success.

Approximately ninety-four members are under the direction of Mr. Howard Nicar, the band director.

Cadet Band

Cadet Band members made known their abilities this year as they played a concert for the C. H. Friend Elementary School. They also participated at football and basketball games. The Cadet Band is under the direction of Mr. Howard Nicar and is composed of forty-five members. While in parades, the band is under the direction of Drum Majorette Pattie Brown.

H. C. H. S.'s beginners band was composed of forty-one first year students. These students were mostly eighth grade pupils. The training that these students received will someday allow them to advance to the comet band. Since September, with the help of Mr. Nicar, these music pupils have come along rapidly. The big event for this band, as for the other bands, was the Spring Concert in May. As these students continue to improve and move up in the H. C. H. S. band, they will be true representatives of Halifax County High School.

Carolyn Roberts, Patricia Patterson, and Phyllis Duncan find that it takes a great deal of practice to master the clarinet.

Choral Club

The Choral Club, under the direction of Miss Harriett Harris, is a very active group. Winning a superior rating at the District Music Festival was one of the accomplishments this year. The chorus also participated in the school activities, co-operating with the Student Council in the Christmas program and in its Spring Fair, where they sponsored a horror house and a nightclub, which were quite successful.

Library Club

The Library Club, sponsored by Miss Frances Woltz, is a voluntary service organization which renders such services as checking books in and out of the library, collecting fines, shelving books, checking students in and out of the library, and typing cards for the card catalogue.

The club's objectives are to encourage interest in library work as a career, to improve the library program in the school, to stimulate reading interests, and to encourage a greater interest among students in the merit of using the library.

Audio Visual Club

H. C. H. S.'s Audio-Visual Club is a school service group consisting of twenty-four boys. The purposes of this club are to assist the audio-visual director in the area of audio-visual education, and to set up and operate all audio-visual aids equipment. The club encourages boys with mechanical ability to use this talent for the service of their school.

The boys receive no material awards, but have the satisfaction of helping their school, as they give up their study hall time to operate the equipment for teachers.

To train one to analyze any controversial question, to teach one to speak effectively, and to prepare one to think while on his feet were the goals for which the junior and senior debate teams strived during the year.

The topic debated was "Resolved That United States Foreign Aid Should Be Substantially Increased." The junior team practiced by debating with members of the government and speech arts class. At the District Forensics Meet in Danville, both the affirmative and negative teams placed third with superior ratings.

Future Teachers of America seeks to train young people through practice for professional and civic leadership. The F. T. A. has a three-fold purpose. It is (1) to encourage young people to cultivate in themselves the qualities of personality and character which are the foundations of successful teaching; (2) to acquaint young people with the inspiring story of the history of American education, the part free schools have played in the development of our democratic way of life and the heroic pioneering associated with their establishment and expansion; and (3) to provide young people with specific information about opportunities in the various fields of education.

National Junior

Some of the objectives of the Junior Classical League are to tie up the unknown past with the present; to provide fun in the form of games with Latin terms or words, plays, dramatization, and songs; and to provide an opportunity for more student interest in the Latin language. The Latin Club also tries to influence students to continue their study of Latin in college, because after two years of the language offered in high school many students plan no longer to study this ancient language. The organization also fosters a feeling of fun and fellowship among the Latin students.

Classical League

The membership of the club is approximately 200. The organization has officers for each separate class in addition to the general officers.

Club entertainment plays a vital part in the group's activities. A Christmas program was planned and presented by the second and third year students for the entire Latin Club. In addition to that, programs have been presented by the individual class in the form of dramatizations.

The group also publishes a small paper telling new students the value of Latin and why they should take it.

French Club

The French Club is organized for the purpose of furthering interest in the French language and the "atmosphere" of the French people.

The club usually has a meeting every six weeks in addition to the yearly banquet during which only French is spoken.

An interesting activity of the French club is its pen-pal program. Many of the students have pen-pals from France and other European countries. The club presented a fashion show at the S. C. A. Fair.

To organize Spanish students into a club in order to create a sense of unity is the main purpose of the Spanish Club. This unity enables programs and socials to be planned.

Students who take first and second year Spanish are eligible for the club. All the business of the club is transacted by the members who take an active part in the work of the club, which includes programs and discussions concerning people of the Spanish speaking countries. These programs and discussions give pupils an opportunity to further their knowledge of these peoples.

The Future Business Leaders of America (F. B. L. A.) is a national organization for business educational students. It includes local chapters, state chapters, and national chapters. This organization, designed for high school and college members, is composed of active, associate, and honorary members. The national headquarters is located in Washington, D. C.

The state chapter issues bulletins to chapter officers, provides for competitive ideas, assists in installing new chapters, and selects local chapters and chapter representatives.

The local chapter consists of a group of students enrolled in business classes. Each year that one is a member of the club, he must be enrolled in a business subject.

Vocational Office Training is an office training program for senior students who intend to be employed in an office upon graduation from high school. It is a finishing course or terminal course for the stenographic student and a basic skill training course for a non-stenographic student.

Besides learning while on the job, the V.O.T. students aid HCHS in many ways. They are responsible for typing the stories for the STAR as well as the copy for the yearbook.

Mrs. Dorothy Cheatham, head of the Business Education Department, is the co-ordinator for the club.

Diversified Occupations is a program designed to provide vocational industrial training opportunities for high school juniors and seniors. It is a form of part time training that involves a co-operative arrangement between trade and industry and the public high school. These trade and industrial establishments furnish part time employment and training for pupils during school hours.

The Halifax County Chapter has won several honors during the past year. Bobby Burton was elected to the office of District V president. Also Peggy DeJarnette won first place in the District talent contest and she represented the District at the annual State D. O. Convention in Roanoke where she captured another first place.

Students in Distributive Education at H. C. H. S. are employed all during the year to prepare themselves for business leadership. The purpose of D. E. is to train high school juniors and seniors in the field of distribution of goods, and to prepare them for full time employment after graduation. In the District Convention, the Halifax County D. E. Club took first place in the window judging contest. The club also represented H. C. H. S. well at the State Convention, although there were no winners. The D. E. Club, the largest in District IX, sponsored an Employee-Employer Banquet to honor the business firms who employ students.

Future Homemakers

To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking is the chief purpose of the Future Homemakers of America.

This year the F. H. A. numbered among its accomplishments the following: Mildred Murray, past F. H. A. State Reporter, attended the National Convention at Purdue University, in Indiana. Also, Mary Scott Blanks, Amy Brown, and Mildred Murray were awarded the State Homemaker Degree at the State Convention in Roanoke.

This year's activities included the Fall Federation meeting at H. C. H. S. and the Spring Federation meeting at Randolph Henry. The F. H. A. Hospital Auxillary was, also, reorganized and the members of the Auxillary performed their duties as nurses aides in the local hospitals.

In September, socials were held in each home economics class to acquaint eighth grade home economics students with F. H. A. work. In observance of National F. H. A. Week in March, the chapter held a Family Night supper. Each member brought her parents for the supper and the program which followed.

Members of the F. H. A. have aided the school by rendering their services as waitresses at various banquets. The F. H. A. - F. F. A. Valentine Dance in February highlighted the social calendar. Ginny Patterson was chosen queen of the dance.

F.H.A. members, Milly McCanless, Mary Frances Nuckles, Nancy Baynes, and Mildred Tuck prepare cookies for sale at the S.C.A. Fair.

F. H. A. Valentine Queen, Ginny Patterson, and King Bobby Conner were crowned at the F.H.A.-F.F.A. Valentine Dance, one of the highlights of the F.H.A.'s social calendar.

Future Farmers

One hundred sixty-one members and eighteen associate members make the H. C. H. S. Future Farmers Chapter one of the largest in the state. These young men are training for better agriculture leadership, cooperation, citizenship, and improved agricultural methods in this country.

To stimulate the growth of these admirable traits of character, the "F.F.A. 'ers" participate in many activities. Some of those stressing leadership are radio programs once a week, public speaking contests, degree team work, and parliamentary procedure used in meetings.

Traits of co-operation are found in buying and selling co-operatively seed and livestock, taking part in chapter heifer projects, and participating in graded hay sales. Citizenship is developed in F. F. A. work through the understanding of opening and closing ceremonies, and installation services. To encourage improved agriculture, the F. F. A. boys participate in farm management practices, plant trees, and use improved practices in production and marketing.

Although F. F. A. is an organization to train boys to be better farmers, it does not forget the social life of its members. Each year the chapter sponsors a Father-Son Banquet, a spring picnic, co-sponsors a Valentine Dance with the Future Homemakers and sends some of its members to F. F. A. camp each summer.

Athletics

The ever increasing athletic program at Halifax County High School is high on the list of accomplishments to which the school can point with pride. It is in the field of athletics that the most tangible evidence of spirit in the school can be found. Both as participants and spectators, members of the student body show real enthusiasm for school sports.

Positions on ten separate interscholastic teams are available for athletic aspirants, both experienced and unexperienced.

Prowess of sports in by no means a prerequisite for participation. In fact, students of average or below average ability have always been welcomed to the squads. Of course, this does not mean that participation in athletics is easy. In fact, it is often the challenge of H.C.H.S.'s sports program that attracts both participants and spectators. Interest in school sports is further stimulated by the existence of related groups such as the Monogram Club, the cheerleaders, and the Pep Club.

Blue Comet Football

Squad

The Blue Comets opened the football season by absorbing a 22-0 defeat at the hands of E. C. Glass. In their next encounter the Comets trounced Bluestone, 32-6.

After successive losses to Martinsville, 33-0, and George Washington, 7-6, the Comets came back to tie Basset 6-6, in the first V. I. R. Festival game ever played.

Playing one of their worst games of the year, the Comets were trounced by the Andrew Lewis Wolverines by a score of 35-0. Their next game found them matched against once beaten Franklin County. The Blue Comets smashed the Franklin County eleven, 32-6.

Randolph Henry provided the next opposition for the Comets. Although the Comets met stiff resistance, they pulled out a 7-6 win. In the last home game of the year, the Comets easily defeated Park View by a score of 48-26. Playing their last game of the year, the Comets lost to the Cradock Admirals by a whopping score of 41-7 in a game played Thanksgiving Day.

Varsity Cheerleaders

C-O-M-E-T-S

The Halifax County High School cheerleaders led the cheering at the 1957-58 football and basketball games. Other duties of the group include decorating goalposts and hoops, administering pep rallies and planning the homecoming festivities.

The new cheerleaders are elected each year by the Student Council president, members of the physical education department, and outgoing varsity cheerleaders.

Varsity Cheerleaders are (clockwise starting at bottom) Shirley Day, Amy Brown, Faye Edmundson, Boo Bagwell, Sandra Dixon, Sandra Crews, Betty Paulette, Joyce Wilborn, Jane Carlton Shapard, and Emmy Lee Mason.

J.V. Cheerleaders

Junior varsity cheerleaders are selected in September by the Varsity cheerleaders, Varsity cheerleader sponsor, President of Student Council Association, class presidents, and physical education teachers.

These girls are judged according to their school spirit and their ability to learn the cheers.

One day out of every week during football and basketball season, cheerleading practice is held in the school lobby.

Junior varsity cheerleaders led the enthusiasm at all home junior varsity games. They cheered at all away football games except one.

Season

The sophomore-laden Comets opened up the season with a 56-34 triumph over Franklin County. In their first Western District encounter the Blue Comets soundly whipped the Andrew Lewis Wolverines 56-48.

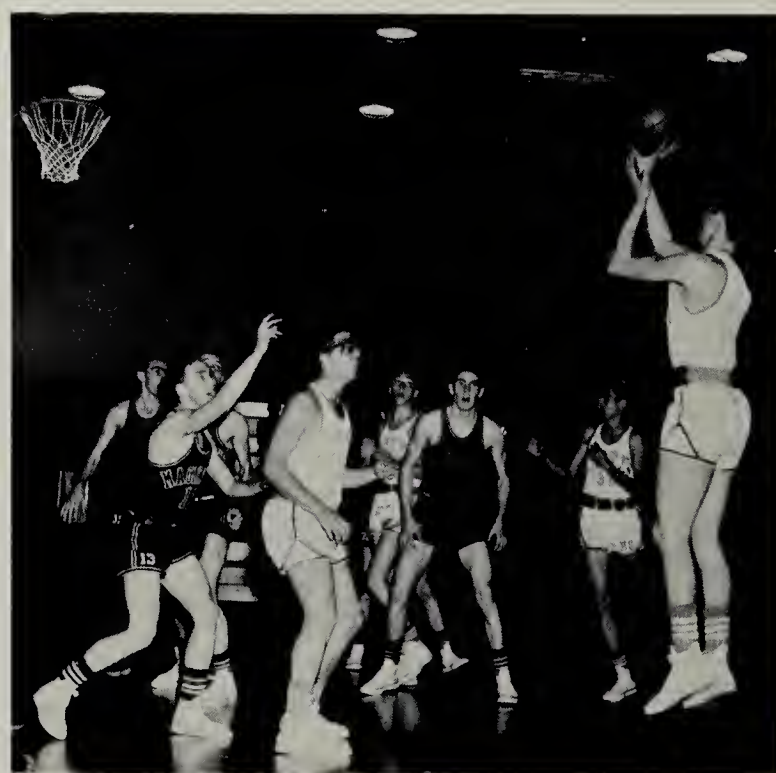

After successive losses to E. C. Glass and Jefferson Senior, the Comets bounced back to defeat the Drewy Mason five by a close score of 48-46. A strong Fieldale five trounced the Comets in their next encounter by a score of 61-53. In their next game the Comets trounced their arch rival George Washington High School, 51-41.

Continuing their fine brand of play the Blue Comets defeated the William Fleming Colonels 46-41.

After absorbing two defeats from the hands of Fieldale and Jefferson Senior, H. C. H. S. bounced back to soundly trounce the Covington Cougars 81-29. After beating William Fleming for the second time, the Comets came up against revenge-minded George Washington. Again the Comets prevailed, this time by a score of 46-37. After successive wins over Drewy Mason and Covington, the Comets absorbed another setback at the hands of E. C. Glass by a 46-27 score.

Wayne Lloyd, of H. C. H. S., goes up for a shot in the game against Jefferson Senior.

Highlights

Although meeting strong opposition in Franklin County the Comets came out on top by a score of 57-52. In their last two regular season games, the Comets lost to Andrew Lewis, 51-40, but came back to easily defeat Bluestone High School, 75-43.

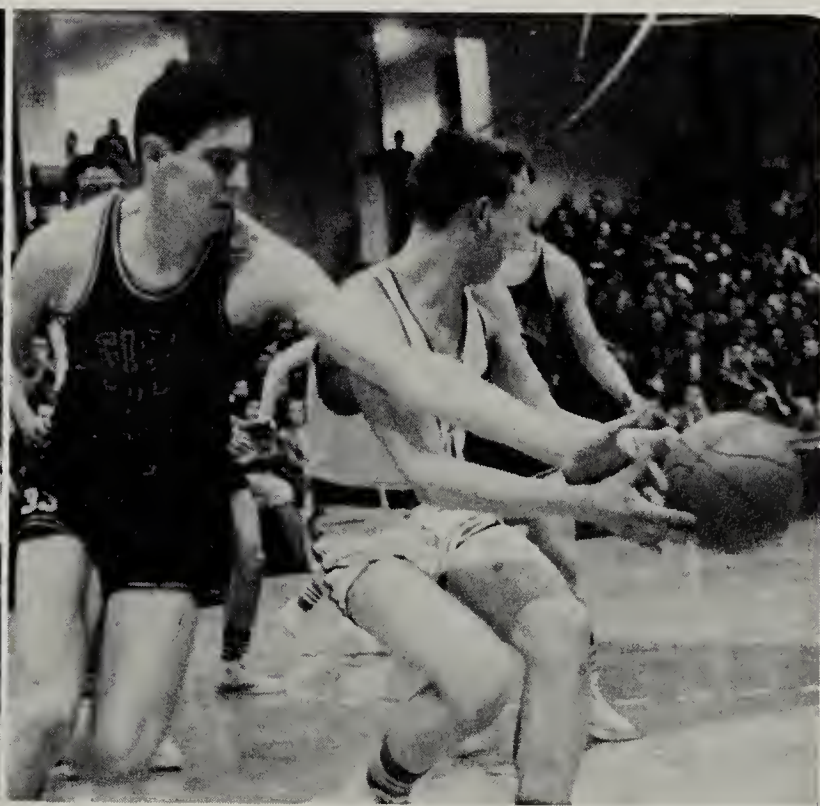

Playing in the Western District Tournament, the Comets lost to Jefferson Senior, 52-49 but came back to defeat G. W., 45-44, for consolation honors.

Mitchell Gravitt, of H. C. H. S., and Wayne Minton, of William Fleming, fight for possession of the ball.

Halifax County's Jim Hickey looks for a teammate to pass to in the William Fleming tussle.

Wayne Burford, of Jefferson Senior, slaps the ball from the hands of Chip Conner during the first game of the district tournament.

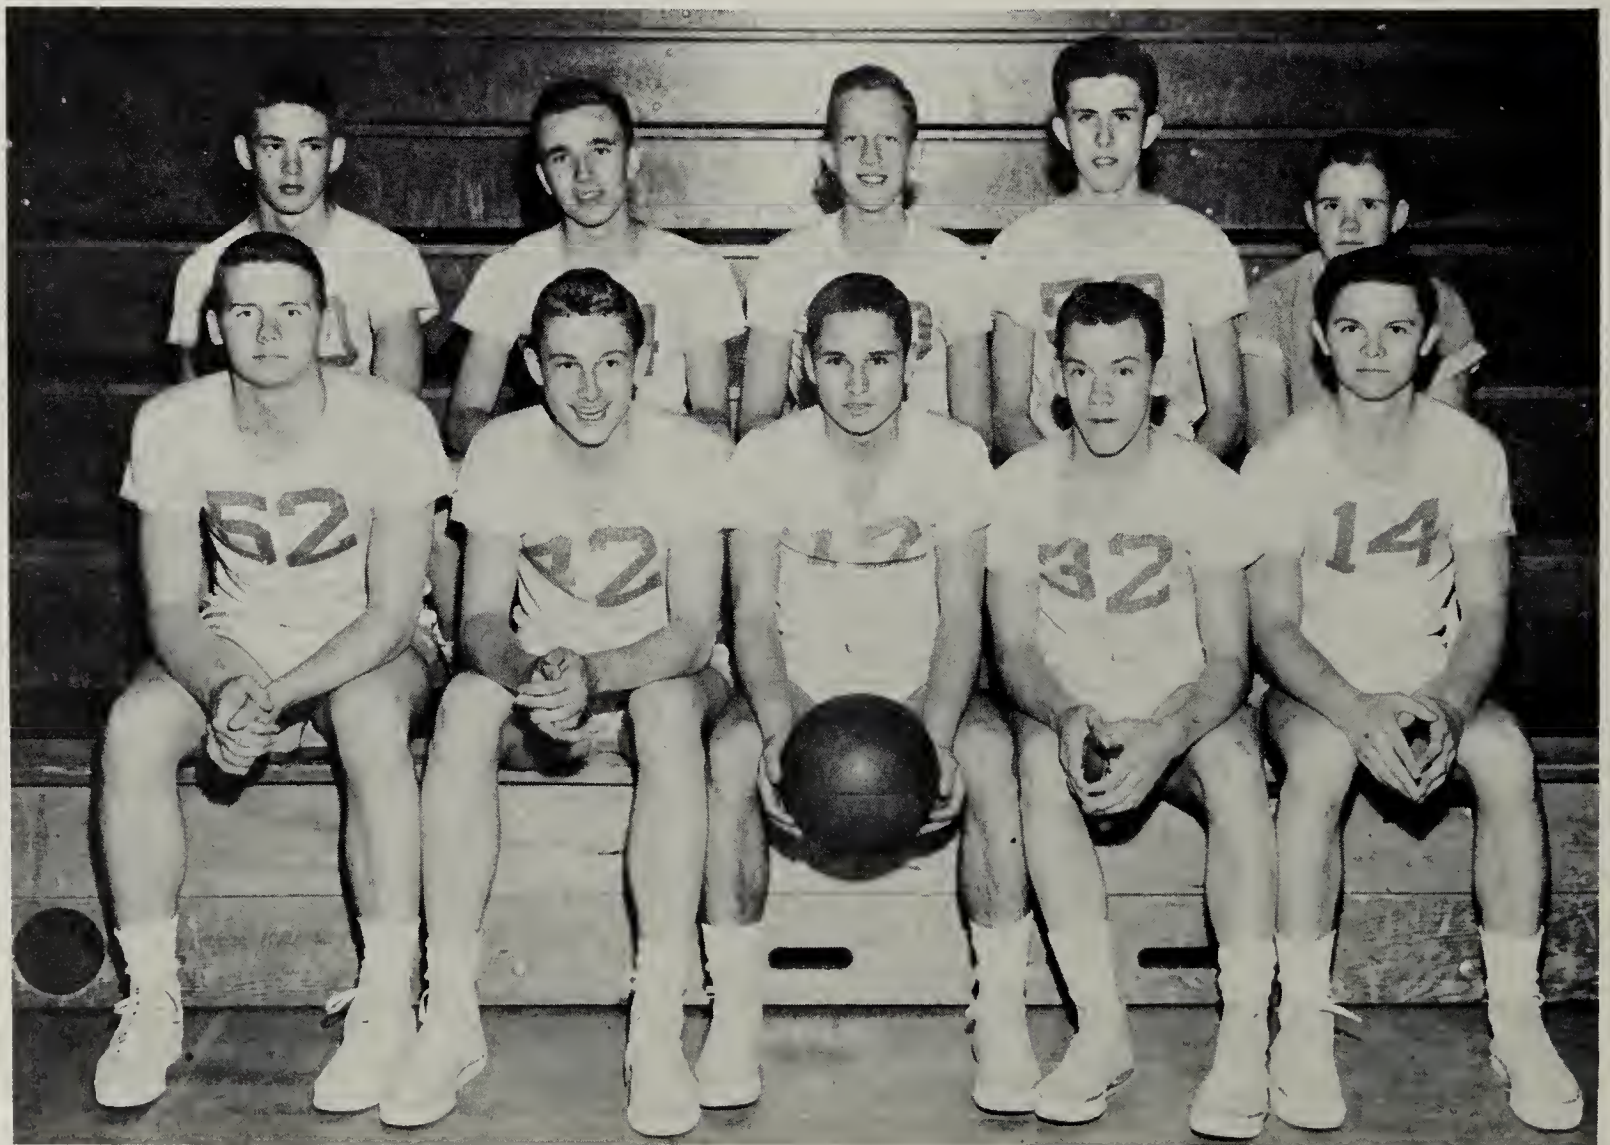

J. V. basketball captains are Louie Seabolt and Harry Davis.

Monogram Club

In its first year of existence at H. C. H. S. the Monogram Club progressed very rapidly.

Other than just being lettermen in one of the school-sponsored athletic programs, members must be willing to promote the welfare of all athletic programs.

The purpose of the Monogram Club is to create a feeling of unity among the different sports, to create higher school spirit, and to create within the boys a more wholesome attitude toward the school and its activities. Also, the club wants to have more "off the field" activities for the athletes.

Features

The features of the year are the extra special events that put the sparkle in the golden harvest. It's over these events that the most perspiration is produced, the gayest laughter is heard, and the sincerest tears are shed. These are the events that are remembered long after the Pythagorean theorem is forgotten.

There is homecoming during which old friends are greeted, and where this year Halifax County High School boasted her first float. There is the thrill of seeing the school queens crowned; the excitement of the plays; and finally, the nostalgia that accompanies graduation.

All of these events carry a quality that is distinctive of Halifax County High School. The beautiful, happy, and absurd experiences that make up the features of the year give the necessary balance to high school life.

Natalie Terry and David Wilborn play the third act of "Angel Street" on the G. W. stage as the H.C.H.S. entry in the one-act play festival.

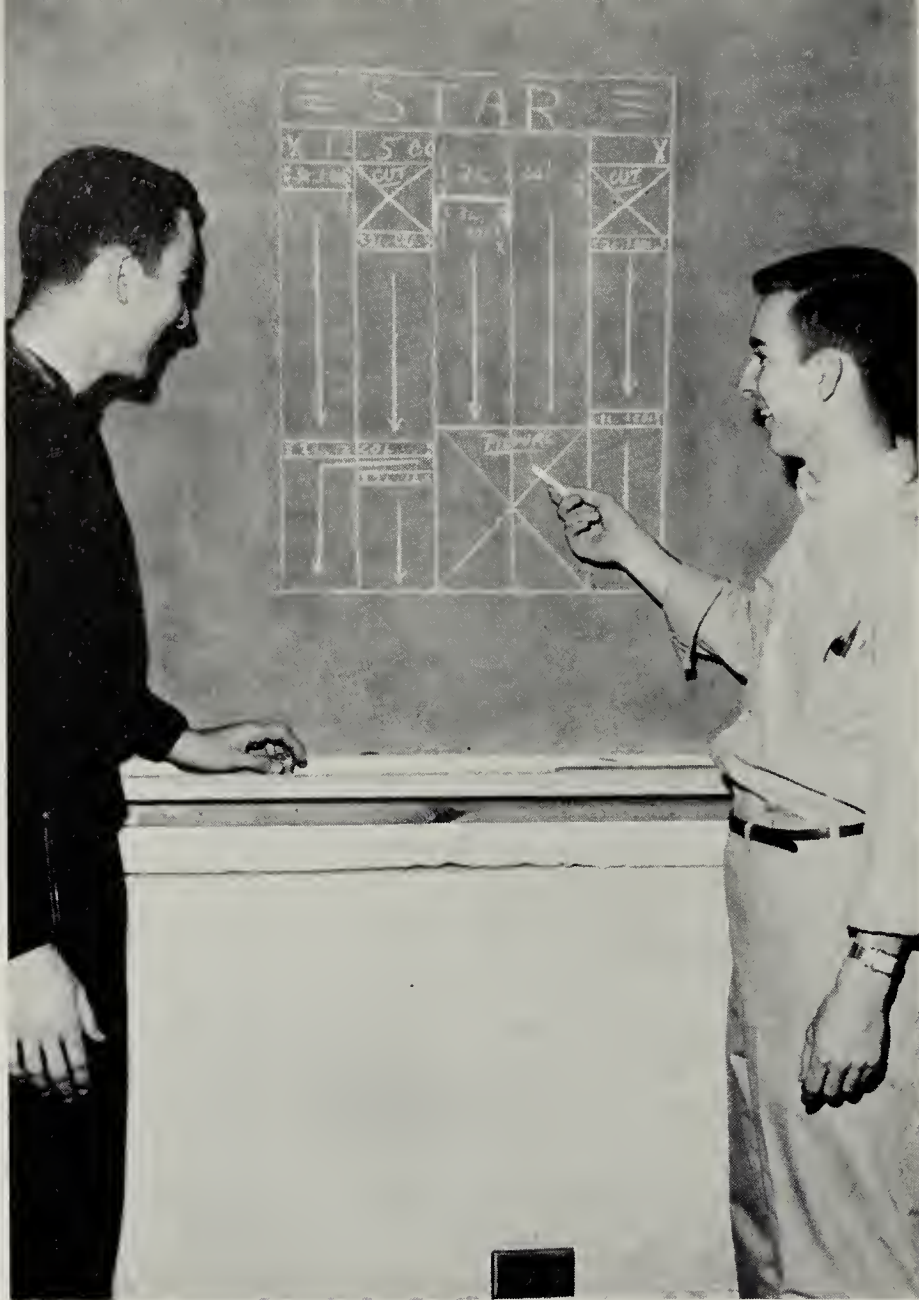

This year's H.C.H.S. play presentations were extremely varied. The junior play was done arena style with little set, while the senior play boasted an elaborate set from the traditional stage.

The Junior class presented "The Imaginary Invalid" a French comedy by Moliere. This was H.C.H.S.'s first play given in the round. The play cast consisted of 14 actors and actresses.

"Angel Street", by Patrick Hamilton, was presented by the Senior class. The third act of this three-act play was taken to Danville for the one-act play festival where it received a superior rating. Three actresses and two actors composed the cast for this play.

Advertisements

The businesses of Halifax County have traditionally been closely linked with the school. Since the inception of Halifax County High School five years ago, they have been called upon time and again for financial support. In addition to advertisements in the STAR and HALISCOPE, Halifax County merchants have contributed space in the F. F. A. and senior calendars, financed the printing of tickets for school programs, and contributed to the building of scoreboards for athletic events.

They have also contributed to many special events at H. C. H. S. For instance, merchants have lent materials for school plays and dances. They have provided refreshments at school functions and have helped in the administration of pep rallies.

In truth the advertisement section here-- which is the largest in HALISCOPE history-- represents only a part of the civic contributions to H.C.H.S. welfare.

Blue for bright skies ever Our Alma Mater noble free We pledge united hearts to serve thee

The picture on this and the opposite page, showing eighth graders on the ends and going progressively through the class cycle to the two seniors in the middle, represents the theme of this book. Patricia Patterson, Tommy James, Nancy Cocke, Joyce Lipscomb, Johnny Bass, Betty Downey, Logan Young, William Watkins, Rosalind Rogers, and Tommy Snow are symbolic of the five classes at Halifax County, each participating in the continual cycle of high school education.

The Senior Class will this year fulfill the cycle as they become the first complete product of H.C.H.S. The other classes will continue the cycle until they and those that follow them are also part of the educational golden harvest.

So although the end of this book symbolizes the fulfillment of the first golden harvest, this does not mean that this year's Senior Class represents the only one. It is only hoped that the students of the succeeding harvests will close a school life as enjoyable and profitable as the one that students of the first golden harvest had.
